ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

All applicants need to demonstrate English Proficiency. Indicate which applies:

- English is my mother tongue
- English was the medium of instruction for my conferred BA or Graduate degree
- Acceptable score in a standardized English Proficiency test

Results of Test:

Score _____

Date _____

Before acceptance to AIIAS, applicants are required to submit a standardized English test score [TOEFL, Michigan English, IELTS Test]. Official score reports should be sent directly to the AIIAS Admissions & Records Office. For those who have not obtained an acceptable score for graduate work, the test score will be used to determine the estimated length of stay at AIIAS (including English Center classes). A student must sign and submit a waiver before coming to AIIAS and take the AIIAS English Proficiency Placement Test upon arrival. However, the estimated or approximate length of stay at AIIAS cannot be determined until the results are given.

AIAS Values and Lifestyle Statement

(Note: Before filling out an application, you will need to read and accept the AIAS Values and Lifestyle Statement. Kindly fill and submit this electronic file to the Admissions Office.)

The Adventist International Institute of Advanced Studies (AIAS) actively encourages spiritually focused lives and a wholesome lifestyle consistent with Seventh-day Adventist principles. The AIAS Adventist Church located on campus provides spiritually enriching services. All students are encouraged to attend these services and to have daily personal devotions to grow in their relationship with Jesus Christ. In order to assist you in this important decision to enroll at AIAS, we would like to share some of the distinctive features embraced by our faith-based institution.

- 1. Faith. AIAS is committed to faith in God and respect for the rich diversity of faiths represented among our students. All the faculty and staff and most of our students are members of the Seventh-day Adventist church, and so the spiritual environment is strongly oriented that way.
- 2. Chapel Services. In order to facilitate a personal journey with God, AIAS provides a weekly chapel service for both students and faculty members. This is a time when the community comes together to, not only worship, but to address community issues and share announcements. Chapel is an essential element of the students' program at AIAS and it is expected that they will attend every chapel program.
- 3. Religion Courses. The curricula of all AIAS programs include religion courses and have the goal of integrating faith and learning in every class.
- 4. Sabbath. Because the Seventh-day Adventist observe the Biblical Sabbath, from sundown on Friday until sundown on Saturday, time is provided for rest, reflection and renewal. During these hours, school offices, laboratories, and the library are closed.
- 5. Respect for Diversity. AIAS is a community with students and faculty from many different countries. For this reason, we celebrate diversity. Students agree to give equal respect for people from every nation, race, and people group.
- 6. Personal Appearance. Students agree to observe a high standard of Christian appearance and grooming with modesty in their dress. The use of jewelry, tattoo, or body piercing is not allowed.
- 7. Healthful Lifestyle. AIAS places a high value on healthful living. Consistent with Adventist values, AIAS practices a vegetarian diet at all school functions and encourages students to follow a similar personal eating pattern. Regular exercise, and other natural health practices are encouraged. AIAS students agree to exclude alcohols, tobacco, and illegal drugs from their lives during their enrollment at AIAS. Additional details on lifestyle requirements and professional expectations of students are provided in the Student Handbook <http://www.aiias.edu/en/admissions/student-handbook> and the AIAS Bulletin <http://www.aiias.edu/en/academic-bulletin>

I, _____, agree to abide by the policies that implement these values while I am enrolled as a student at AIAS. I certify the accuracy of the information and that I am the original author of all parts of the application materials I have submitted or will submit. I understand that any misrepresentation or omission of required materials could jeopardize my admission or matriculation whenever such information is discovered.
