

Recognition

Allias is recognized as a graduate educational institution of international character by the government of the Republic of the Philippines, as certified by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) pursuant to Presidential Decree No. 2021.

Accreditation

Allias is accredited by the Adventist Accrediting Association (AAA) of Seventh-day Adventist Schools, Colleges and Universities. The graduate school programs are accredited by the Philippine Accrediting Association of Schools, Colleges and Universities (PAASCU). PAASCU is a full member of Asia-Pacific Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE).

The Allias Seminary is accredited by the Association for Theological Education in Southeast Asia (ATESEA), which is affiliated with the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) and the World Conference of Associations of Theological Institutions (WOCATI). ATESEA recognizes the seminary as one of its eight "centers for the theological excellence."

Allias is a member of the Philippine e-Learning Society (PeLS), the country's premier organization for the advancement of e-learning practice, research, and collaboration.

OPERATED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE
OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Why Choose AIAS?

DISTINCTIVELY ADVENTIST

Adventist worldview permeates the whole curriculum, and online students get the same distinctively Adventist learning experiences anyone would have in on-campus settings.

MISSION-ORIENTED

Online classes utilize mission-oriented course designs that allow students to engage in their immediate communities and apply what they learn in their contexts.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Online courses are designed with the same rigor and academic quality as on-campus classes and are taught by outstanding faculty internationally recognized in their field.

FLEXIBILITY

While highly interactive, online classes combine flexible weekly course modules and real-time videoconferences, thus creating a learning experience that is flexible yet connected. Being Internet-based makes online learning an “anytime, anywhere” experience.

AFFORDABLE COST

Among graduate schools of international character, AIAS Online’s tuition fee is one of the lowest, as the school is designed to serve students from all backgrounds.
