EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The Education Department of AIAS is a broad-based program that includes theory, research, practice, service learning, and the integration of faith and learning. Our goal is to prepare Christian educators to be reflective thinkers and practitioners committed to being lifelong learners to serve the needs of humanity. The Education Department has produced competent leaders serving as teachers, professors, administrators, or curriculum specialists for over two decades.

You will find a unique experience here as you engage with international faculty who facilitate the global contextualization of Christian education, one-to-one mentoring, and timely completion of studies. Small class sizes, active learning, technology integration, and classmates from around the world are just some things you will experience when you study at AIAS.
