THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

AIIAS Seminary is an internationally recognized Seventh-day Adventist center for theological excellence in Southeast Asia, offering in-depth training in biblical studies, theology, history, church ministry, leadership, and mission. At AIIAS Seminary, pastors, church leaders, teachers, and professors are equipped for service in a diverse and cross-cultural environment representing more than 70 countries.

AIIAS Seminary provides an environment to nurture your relationship with Christ, deepen your understanding of the Bible, and cultivate your calling to ministry. Our international faculty are not only experts in their academic disciplines but also have a rich ministry experience, having previously served as pastors, administrators, chaplains, and missionaries. They will guide you in your professional development and help you become a leader in your community. Our location in the Philippines allows our students to experience the rich texture of a multicultural environment. It offers many opportunities to learn, communicate, and serve across cultural divides. AIIAS is where you can truly engage in mission to the world.

We look forward to welcoming you to our campus and helping you grow as a leader in your service to humanity.
